

Figure: 26 TAC §745.8976

If the provisional CCAL is issued:	The permit is valid:
(1) Under §745.8925 of this subchapter (relating to How do I qualify for a provisional Child-Care Administrator's License (CCAL) if I do not meet the management or supervisory experience required for a full CCAL?)	(A) For two years from the date we issue the permit; and (B) Is not eligible for renewal.
(2) Under §745.8913(b) of this subchapter (relating to Can my licensure in another state qualify me for an administrator's license?)	(A) 180 days after the permit is issued; and (B) May be extended one time for an additional 180 days.