NOTE: A voter may only deliver his or her own personal ballot. NOTA: Un votante sólo puede entregar su propia boleta.

Instructions:

1. Ask the voter to present an acceptable form of photo ID when he or she presents the Carrier Envelope for hand-delivery.
 - a. If the voter does not have an acceptable form of photo ID, ask the voter for a supporting form of ID and have the voter execute the Reasonable Impediment Declaration.
 2. Add the voter’s printed name to the Poll List column of the Roster and instruct the voter to sign the signature column on the corresponding numbered line.
 3. Write the voter’s VUID number, if known, in the VUID # column.
 4. Check the appropriate column to note whether the voter had an approved form of photo ID from the A List OR a supporting form of ID from the B List and executed a RID.
 5. Write the name of the Election Official who received the ballot from the voter. The receiving official attests that the delivery of the Carrier Envelope complies with Section 86.006(a-2).
 6. Write “Hand-Delivery” and note the time the Ballot by Mail was hand-delivered on the Carrier Envelope.
 7. Upon receipt of the Carrier Envelope, secure the Ballot by Mail until its delivery to the Signature Verification Committee / Early Voting Ballot Board.
- If the voter does not have an approved form of ID to complete the Ballot by Mail hand-delivery process, he or she can return home and obtain one or go to an Election Day voting site and surrender the Carrier Envelope to vote in person. There is no provisional voting process for a hand-delivered Ballot by Mail
- If the voter insists on leaving the Carrier Envelope without presenting an approved form of ID, the ballot will be treated as a ballot not timely returned and therefore, not counted.
Si el votante insiste en entregar el Sobre de Envío sin presentar una forma de identificación aprobada, la boleta será considerada como una boleta tardía y no será contada.
