

Name of Form:

Register of Spoiled Ballots.

Section Reference:

Section 64.007, Texas Election Code.

Purpose:

To account for ballots which were returned by voters as mismarked, damaged, or otherwise spoiled, and to account for ballots used for any purpose other than voting. (See comment No. 3.)

Number of Copies Required:

One.

Completed by:

Presiding Judge.

Filing Date:

After ballots have been counted.

Filed with:

Put in Ballot Box No. 4.

Comments:

- 1. If a voter destroys or makes a mistake on his/her ballot, he/she may turn it in for a new one no more than two times for a total of three ballots.
- 2. The election judge keeps this record to account for the number of ballots given to each voter.
- 3. If an official ballot is used to test voting devices to ensure they are in working order, the ballot is registered on the register as spoiled.

Current form is 3/07.