Voter Registration Eligibility

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Voter Registration Eligibility

Texas Election Code (TEC) § 11.002

Applicant must:

- be a United States Citizen;
- be at least 17 years and 10 months old;
- be a resident of Texas;
- not have been finally convicted of a felony; and if so, have completed their term of incarceration, parole, or supervision, or completed a period of probation ordered by any court
- not have been declared totally or partially mentally incapacitated without the right to vote by a court of law.

Determination of Eligibility

TEC § 20.006

- An employee of a public library may not make any determination about a person's eligibility for registration other than whether or not a person is of voting age or a U.S. Citizen.
- A person's age or citizenship may be determined by the employee only if the age or citizenship can be readily determined from information filed with the agency by the person for purposes other than voter registration.
- A person must be offered voter registration assistance even if the applicant's age and/or citizenship status cannot be determined.

Qualifications

- You must register to vote in the county in which you reside.
- You must be a citizen of the United States.
- You must be at least 17 years and 10 months old to register, and you must be 18 years of age by Election Day.
- You must not be finally convicted of a felony, or if you are a felon, you must have completed all of your punishment, including any term of incarceration, parole, supervision, period of probation, or you must have received a pardon.
- You must not have been determined by a final judgment of a court exercising probate jurisdiction to be totally mentally incapacitated or partially mentally incapacitated without the right to vote.

Filling out the Application

- Review the application carefully, fill it out, sign and date it and mail it to the voter registrar in your county or drop it by the Voter Registrar's office.

All voters who register to vote in Texas must provide a Texas driver's license number or personal identification number issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety. If you don't have such a number, simply provide the last four digits of your social security number. If you don't have a social security number, you need to state that fact.

Your voter registration will become effective 30 days after it is received or on your 18th birthday, whichever is later. Your registration must be effective on or before an election day in order to vote in that election.

If you move to another county, you must re-register in the county of your new residence.

Please visit the Texas Secretary of State website, www.sos.state.tx.us, and for additional election information visit www.votetexas.gov.

AWA 9 Prescribed by Secretary of State - Section 62.004, Texas Election Code (01/2018)

ID required for Texas Voters

If you possess one of the following forms of acceptable photo ID, you must present it when voting in person:^{*}

- ★ Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- ★ Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- ★ Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
- ★ Texas Handgun License issued by DPS
- ★ United States Military Identification Card containing your photograph
- ★ United States Citizenship Certificate containing your photograph
- ★ United States Passport (book or card)

Do not possess and cannot reasonably obtain one of these IDs? Fill out a declaration at the polls describing a reasonable impediment to obtaining it, and show a copy or original of one of the following supporting forms of ID:

- ★ A government document that shows your name and an address, including your voter registration certificate;
- ★ Current utility bill;
- ★ Bank statement;
- ★ Government check;
- ★ Paycheck; or
- ★ (a) A certified domestic (from a U.S. state or territory) birth certificate or (b) a document confirming birth admissible in a court of law which establishes your identity (which may include a foreign birth document).

^{*} With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate, for voters aged 18-64, the acceptable forms of photo identification must be current or have expired no more than 4 years before being presented for voter qualification at the polling place. A person 70 years of age or older may use a form of acceptable photo identification that has expired if the identification is otherwise valid.
Exemptions: Voters with a disability may apply with the correct name request for a permanent exemption to display acceptable photo ID or follow the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure at the polls. Voters with a religious objection to being photographed or voters who do not present an acceptable form of photo identification or follow the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure at the polls because of certain national disaster laws apply to a temporary exemption to showing an acceptable form of photo identification or following the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure at the polls. Please contact your voter registrar for more details.
