

Form 2705—General Information
(Trust Account Notice for a Business Opportunity Seller)

The attached form is designed to meet minimal statutory filing requirements pursuant to the relevant code provisions. This form and the information provided are not substitutes for the advice and services of an attorney.

Commentary

In accordance with Section 51.101 of the Texas Business & Commerce Code, a principal seller of a business opportunity must secure at least $25,000, in favor of the state, before representing that the purchaser will earn or is likely to earn a profit in excess of the amount of the initial consideration the purchaser paid, or otherwise representing that the purchaser is assured of making a profit from the business opportunity. The security may be obtained in the form of a surety bond, a trust account, or an irrevocable letter of credit. After establishing the required security, the principal seller must file a copy of the bond, notification of the trust account, or letter of credit or with the secretary of state. This form is designed to meet the minimum statutory requirements for a formal notification of trust account obtained to satisfy Section 51.101.

The trust account described above has been irrevocably established in favor of the state for the benefit of a person damaged by the above-named seller's (1) violation of Chapter 51, Business & Commerce Code; (2) breach of the business opportunity contract; or (3) breach of an obligation arising from a business opportunity sale.

DEPOSITORY INSTITUTION agrees to act as the sole agent for the purpose of holding this security for the secretary of state's exclusive use. We agree not to release, make payment, or otherwise divert or dispose of the trust account funds except in accordance with the written instructions of the secretary of state. It is understood that notice to or consent of the business opportunity seller or trustee shall not be required for disposition of the trust account funds by the secretary of state.

DEPOSITORY INSTITUTION further agrees not to exercise any offset rights it may have with respect to the trust account funds or to otherwise impede, hinder, delay, prevent, obstruct or interfere with the secretary of state's right to redeem and collect the surety account funds promptly.

DEPOSITORY INSTITUTION acknowledges that it has the power to accept deposits and is authorized to transact business under the law of the State of Texas.

The trust account shall be maintained until the earlier of: (1) approval of the secretary of state to cancel the trust account; or (2) two years after the registrant formally terminates registration.
