

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Texas Register publishes summaries of the following: Requests for Opinions, Opinions, and Open Records Decisions.

An index to the full text of these documents is available on the Attorney General's website at <https://www.texas.attorneygeneral.gov/attorney-general-opinions>. For information about pending requests for opinions, telephone (512) 463-2110.

An Attorney General Opinion is a written interpretation of existing law. The Attorney General writes opinions as part of his responsibility to act as legal counsel for the State of Texas. Opinions are written only at the request of certain state officials. The Texas Government Code indicates to whom the Attorney General may provide a legal opinion. He may not write legal opinions for private individuals or for any officials other than those specified by statute. Opinions

Opinion No. KP-0503

The Honorable Aaron Kinsey

Chair

State Board of Education

1701 North Congress Avenue

Austin, Texas 78701-1494

Re: The extent of the requirements under Section 28.002(a)(2)(G) to adopt and implement essential knowledge and skills regarding religious literature for and in Texas public schools (RQ-0621-KP)

S U M M A R Y

Subsection 28.002(c) of the Education Code requires the State Board of Education to identify by rule the essential knowledge and skills for religious literature. The Board may require instructional integration of religious literature with other courses or, where appropriate, in a standalone course.
