FAQs - Personnel

Q: Do I need to hire elections clerks that are bilingual?

A: Yes-if 5% or more of inhabitants of a precinct speak Spanish or other certain certified languages, other than English, you must make a reasonable effort to appoint a sufficient number of bilingual clerks. We recommend working with people in your community to locate bilingual clerks, e.g. language teachers, minority groups, civic teachers, current elections workers, churches with services in other languages, etc.

NOTE: If you cannot find enough bilingual clerks, you must provide one bilingual worker at a central location to provide translation and assistance.

FAQs - Relatives of Candidates

Q: Can a person that is not related within the first or second degree of marriage or blood be appointed?

A: Yes, but we recommend being cautious in situations like these as there may be a perception of bias. We also recommend equal treatment among potential workers, e.g., if you allow one eligible relative of a candidate to work, you should allow another eligible relative of different candidate.

FAQs - Campaign Staff/Supporters

Q: Can a person that works on a candidate's campaign but is not the campaign manager or treasurer be appointed?

A: Yes, but we recommend being cautious in situations like these as there may be a perception of bias. We also recommend equal treatment among potential workers.
